

Lundin Energy Code of Conduct

Message from CEO

Ethical conduct and business success go hand in hand. Our business model rests on our commitment to carry out our activities in an efficient and responsible manner, taking into consideration the interests of our Company, employees, shareholders, other stakeholders and wider society.

Our Code of Conduct guides our activities. Everyone working for us shall uphold the values, responsibilities and principles of this Code. Our performance depends on how our Board, management, staff and contractors carry out their tasks.

The principles set out in our Code align with those of the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC). By adhering to the UNGC in 2010, we committed to uphold and promote its ten principles on human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. We have endorsed the UN Declaration of Human Rights, the ILO Tripartite Declaration, the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights.

We require everyone working for Lundin Energy to abide by the Code and thereby contribute to the Company's success.

Alex Schneiter
President & CEO
